5. The auto park consists of nine Skoda and Tatra massenger cars, two shop cars, two radio cars, 16 Wieppon prime movers and 12 trucks.

6. In the spring of 1953 the regiment took part in two major firing exercises in the mountains near Trendin. Recruits pass through the training company, where they spend a period of two months before being assigned to sections. Those who cannot qualify politically remain in the training company. Political training takes as much as two or three hours a day, and leaves the men little free time. Leaves are given only after a period of months.
